2025 Oregon Legislative Session Report

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

ACLU Supporter –

The 2025 state legislative session, which ended on Friday, June 27, occurred during dangerous and tumultuous times for our state and country. However, the ACLU of Oregon policy team was ready to lead and act.

We were guided by our core values, not fear. Our legislative agenda was rooted in a vision of our state where all Oregonians – including our most vulnerable loved ones and neighbors – are afforded the basic rights to freedom, liberty, justice, and equality.

You can read about our work during the legislative session in our report on our website.

The ACLU of Oregon policy team fought hard for our state, and we had many victories:

- We stopped an expansion of Oregon's domestic terrorism bill, and also stopped a warrantless drone surveillance bill.
- We stopped disgraceful attacks on transgender Oregonians.
- We successfully continued state support of legal representation for immigrants and refugees in deportation proceedings, as well as for refugee resettlement programs.
- We created state protections against discriminatory book bans and protected students' freedom to read and learn.

These were not just policy wins, they were acts of community love and resistance. We acted in solidarity with directly impacted individuals, coalition partners, legislative champions, and thousands of everyday Oregonians.

Each and every person who testified, organized, and raised your voice to support our legislative work – thank you. YOU are the firewall for freedom.
